

2016 Annual Programme

The 2016 EMA activities are dedicated to the memory of Kenneth Hudson (1916-1999), on occasion of the first centennial of his birth. Most of the present members of EMA had the pleasure and privilege to work with him and consider his legacy as a source of inspiration for EMA today and in the future.

January- November: Master Course in European Museology, International University of Media and Languages (IULM) Milan. This post-graduate course – now at its 6th edition- is held under the auspices of the European Museum Academy.

February: Annual EMA 2020 Task Force Meeting , LIUC University Castellanza (Italy)

19 March: Ema Awards Jury Meeting, Micheletti Foundation Brescia (Italy)

29-30 April: Children in Museums Award Jury Meeting, Amsterdam (The Netherlands)

20-21 May: EMA Annual meeting and EMA Awards Ceremony at the Museum of Industrial Olive Oil Production, Lesbos (Greece). The event is hosted by the Piraeus Bank Group Cultural Foundation.

20 May: Heritage in Motion Award ceremony, Lesbos (Greece). In cooperation with Europeana and Europa Nostra.

9-11 June: Children in Museums Award Ceremony, Ecsite Annual Conference, hosted by the FRida & Fred Children's Museum, the Universalmuseum Joanneum and the association ScienceCentre-Network, Graz (Austria).

13-16 June: International Summer School of Museology, Piran (Slovenia) - this course is co-organized with the Forum of Slavic Cultures and the Primorska University.

June : Official celebration of the Kenneth Hudson Centennial, State University of Padua (Italy) at the Kenneth Hudson Library – the event is co-organised with the DISGEA Department and AIPAI (Italian Association for Industrial Heritage).

September: Ziva Award Seminar and Ceremony (3rd Edition), Zadar (Croatia)

November: 2016 Kenneth Hudson Seminar

This programme is subject to amendment due to opportunities and changing circumstances during the year. To be kept updated, please visit the EMA website and Facebook page regularly.